2. Under Article 3 (3) of the Code of Study and Examination of Charles University and upon prior consultation with the Rector, deans of faculties determine the beginning of a teaching session, examination session, practical training, registration for subjects and other details by means of their respective Dean's Directive. In order to preserve for students their possibility of registering for subjects at various faculties of the University, it is recommended that:
 - a. The commencement of the teaching session in the fall semester should be set for 1 October 2019;
 - b. The period for registration for subjects and respective schedule should be set to include the period between 24 September 2019 and 30 September 2019 in the fall semester; in the spring semester, the period should cover the week from 10 February 2020 to 16 February 2020. Registration for subjects by students of other faculties must be open during those periods.
 - c. The examination session in the fall semester should be set between 13 January 2020 and 16 February 2020; the examination session in the spring semester should be set between 25 May 2020 and 30 June 2020.
 - d. The dean may stipulate by a Dean's Directive that the examination period would include July to September 2020.
3. Vice deans in charge of study, or other officials commissioned thereby, are to notify the Student Affairs Department of the Rectorate of Charles University by 31 March 2019 regarding their respective proposed dates for mass electronic registration of students for subjects and schedules for both semesters of the academic year 2019/2020.
4. The Student Affairs Department, in cooperation with the Computer Science Centre of Charles University, are to consider the planned dates with respect to any potential collision; should there be any the Student Affairs Department is to discuss with the respective faculties suitable solutions. The final list of dates of registration within the University is to be confirmed by 30 April 2019.
5. The Rector's Day is to be held on 6 May 2020.
6. Rector's Directive No. 6/2018 is hereby repealed with effect as on 31 October 2019.
