

---

Approbation Exam

---

Physicians, dentists and pharmacists who as foreign nationals have obtained medical qualification outside the European Union and wish to practice their profession in the Czech Republic or the European Union must pass the Approbation exam.

- Recognition of your previous university education is required for the application.
- Knowledge of the Czech language is required for the successful passing of the Approbation exam.

The exam is prepared and organised by the Institute for Postgraduate Medical Education. The most up-to-date information is available at the website of the Ministry of Health.