
FORUMEA

Forum for Education Abroad (FORUMEA) is a non-profit organization based in the USA whose main objective is to share good practice in the field of internationalization of teaching in the higher education environment. It is also devoted to the evaluation of the quality of teaching according to international standards. The organization has more than 800 members from all over the world. Within the framework of teaching, FORUMEA supports the inclusion, equality and diversity of the involved students.

Apart from participating in regular conferences and seminars, the Charles University can also apply for a FORUMEA certificate, which is awarded to academic staff if they undergo special training by the organization's experts.
