
LERU

LERU (League of European Research Universities) is an important grouping of leading European research universities. Its 23 members are involved in supporting primary research, innovation processes and policy development.

Charles University is a member of the LERU CE7 affiliated group, which unites seven Central European universities in close cooperation with LERU.