Charles University Grant Agency operations are secured by the expert authorities, which are also authorized by their competence to contribute to the grant financing, control compliance with legal and internal requirements, and evaluate completed grant projects.

- University Grant Board
- Supervisory Board
- CU GA Department Boards

Proposal form for the candidate’s proposal to the CU GA Department Board

Information for faculty reporters:
The completed proposal form must be sent to the CU GA address together with a list of the reporter candidate’s publications over the last 10 years and their professional resume. The reporter candidate must be approved by the faculty’s Research Board.

Charles University Grant Board

The Charles University Grant Board is the rector’s constant advisory organ for distributing funds allocated to the university’s internal grant system.

Unless the CU rector specifies otherwise, members of the CU Grant Board include the vice-rector, chairmen and vice-chairmen of CU Grant Agency Board. The current Grant Board has seven members.

Prof. RNDr. Petr Volf, CSc
Chairperson of the Grant Board of the University

Prof. RNDr. Jan Ámos Višek, CSc.
Section A - social sciences
Chairperson section A

Doc. PhDr. Ivana Ebelová, CSc.
Section A - social sciences
Vice-chair section A

Doc. RNDr. Pavel Svoboda, CSc.
Section B - natural sciences
Chairperson section B

Doc. RNDr. Zuzana Bosáková, CSc.
Section B - natural sciences
Vice-chair section B

Prof. MUDr. Radek Pudil, Ph.D.
Section C - medicine
Chairperson section C

Doc. MUDr. Pavel Kraml, Ph.D.
Section C - medicine
Vice-chair section C

Composition of the CU Grant Board 1.9.2017

The rector may select other members of the CU Grant Board, after discussion with the university research board, from a number of well-known researchers. Faculty deans and vice-deans and directors of other university departments may not be members of the CU Grant Board. The rector selects members of the CU GB, including its chairpersons, for a period of three years. The rector may recall a member of the CU GB if a member is a serious breach of duties.

Details regarding CU GB operations may be found in article 4 of the CU Grant Regulations starting 14 December 2016. The Grant Board:

- Prepares the proposed Principles of Charles University Grant Operations and Principles for Carrying Out SVV Projects and ensures their maintenance,
- Discusses and evaluates projects for the SVV competition. Part of the decision-making process for allocating projects is also the proposal for allocated resources,
- Coordinates the operations of the CU GA Department Boards (“department boards”),
- Coordinates cooperation with CU GA judges and reporters,
- Submits proposals for resource limits for grant projects to the individual CU GA department boards,
- Proposes the amount of resources needed to maintain CU GA operations; these resources may also be used to ensure the judges’ salaries and any other operations necessary for evaluating the quality of grant projects,
- Submits suggestions for accepting, rejecting, continuing support, or terminating CU GA grant projects on the basis of the information provided by the department boards; if the grant is accepted, continued, or terminated, the proposal for allocated funds is attached,
• Processes the evaluation of finished CU grant projects on the basis of information provided by the department boards,
• Expresses any potential conflicts which arose in the operations of the department board or between the department boards,
• Concerns itself with initiatives and reminders related to CU GA operations.

Letters to the CU Grant Board or its Chairman should be addressed to the CU GA mailing address or by email to gauk@ruk.cuni.cz.

Supervisory Board
The Supervisory Board ensures compliance with legal requirements, university internal requirements the Principles of the Charles University Grant Agency, and in this way it also controls CU Grant Board and CU GA Department Board operations.

The current SB has six members: the chairman and five members (according to the CU Gran Board regulations; the rector chose the SB, effective 1.3.2016).