Charles University, 15 October 2018, Old Town, Prague

Founded in 1348 by the King of Bohemia and Holy Roman Emperor Charles IV, Charles University is one of the oldest universities in the world. Today, it is a modern, multi-disciplinary and research-oriented public institution and the largest and most renowned university in the Czech Republic. It also ranks #1 Czech University in the most respected world university rankings. Its 17 faculties offer a large scale of fields of study, arts and humanities, education, law, medicine, pharmacy, mathematics, physics, IT, economics, natural and social sciences, theology, psychology, education, and many others.

Among its approximately 50,000 students, CU welcomes every year 8,000 international students who can choose from more than 150 accredited study programs in English and from about 25 summer schools. Within Erasmus+, the most common mobility program in the European Union, preferences of exchange students rank Charles University #5.

Libraries, sports centers and other facilities are available.

You can find more information here.
We will be delighted to welcome participants of Forum on Education Abroad in our iconic Carolinum building on 15 October at 9 am.

After presentations of Charles University by the Vice-Rector for International Affairs and Mobility Professor Jan Skrha and the Vice-Rector for Education Professor Milena Kralickova, presentations of some of our faculties’ representatives will follow. We will offer you a light lunch and a guided tour of the Carolinum historic premises. We also invite you to choose one faculty for an afternoon trip (see the registration form, transportation will be arranged).

Registration
Registration (available here) is limited to the first 40 applicants and will be open until September 10.
